

SPECIAL STUDENTS

1) What does 'a special student' mean? Who can become a special student?

Someone who has a bachelor's degree or is a graduate student at another institution and would like to develop themselves in a certain field can be accepted to courses of a master's programme as a special student with the proposal of the department and the decision of the institute administrative committee.

Students taking courses as a special student do not have any of the rights of a regular graduate student.

2) I want to be a special student, so what should I do?

Date of application is announced in the Academic Calendar. Within the dates, you should apply to the department that you would like to study by filling in the special student application form on the institute's website.

Then you should apply with the documents below:

- ♦ Application form
- ♦ The voucher of the tuition fee which will be announced on the website www.sks.yildiz.edu.tr and a copy of it
- ♦ Transcript (2 copies)
- ♦ Copy of the Diploma (2 copies)
- ♦ Copy of the passport (2 copies)

3) How many courses can I take as a special student? Could I have the courses I took counted?

A special student can have four courses counted at most. This transaction is accomplished by the proposal of a commission consisting of three faculty members who are in charge of the program established by the head of department.

4) How much is the tuition fee for a special student?

You can get the information from <http://www.sks.yildiz.edu.tr/> .
